Regime Change in the Ancient Near East and Egypt ...
The classic view of the ancien régime in France —the state of the nation before the French Revolution of 1789—is one of opulent, corpulent aristocrats enjoying wealth, privilege, and the finery of life, while totally divorced from the mass of the French people, who stooped in rags to pay for it. When this picture is painted, it is usually followed by an explanation of how a revolution —a massive smashing of the old by the massed ranks of the newly empowered common man—was necessary ...

Origins of the French Revolution in the Ancien Regime
